

5th Decr 1849.

Dear Miss Weston

It is with pleasure

I now write to say the box for the Boston Bazaar, is packed & Mr. Lupton has now gone about seeing it shipped which he can easily do, as he are visiting in the neighbourhood of Liverpool. Consequently I have had no hand this year in the packing of it but doubt not it will be properly done. I fear the contribution is smaller than usual as I hear my collection forms a large proportion of the box.
We have a very inefficient committee in Leeds, and remarks

My little girl shall for the slave's shaming cause, begin to think we must remain content to spend only one year of our lives, and gradually sink into the grave, and so I shall be less likely to turn to the abolitionists, he makes many excesses here by it, and his admirers only excuse it by his enthusiasm.
He shall be glad to leave as soon as possible of the world the harem, and especially of how our articles were appreciated, and more especially which are most valuable for future years. Mr. Linton intends to include this in letter to Mr. May, advising
